Damage Suit Against Ogden City-Myrtle Bushnell Wants Divorce Biddle-Anderson Nuptials.

Ogden, Jan. 29.-Judge Howell has rendered his decision on the demurrer of the defendants to the plaintiffs complaint in the case of J. J. Brummitt et al, against Ogden Waterworks company, and Ogden City. In September last the city council passed an ordinance granting to the waterworks company a franchise to maintain and operate a waterworks in Ogden City for a period of 50 years. The plaintiffs brought suit against the defendants to have the court declare the rdinance invalid and void, and to this the defendants filed and argued a general demurrer. The court did not pass on many important questions involved as the demurrer was general and not specific, hence it was overruled. In oncluding his opinion Judge Howell

There is such a multiplicity questions that might be involved in this case that-in fairness to the court it would seem that they should be reduced by the parties to those only which are absolutely necessary to a correct decision of the matter upon its merits. Had the demurrer been special instead of general, the court might have thrust this burden upon the plaintiffs, but as it is, while the court deems many allegations of the court deems many allegations of the complaint immaterial, the court is not prepared to say at this stage of the proceedings that all of the allegations thereof are immaterial, and that there is no equity in plaintiffs' bill, especially as the relation of those portions of the ordinance which are possibly invalid to the remainder can only be determined by a more com-possibly invalid to the remainder can only be determined by a more complete hearing upon the merits.

The court realizes, however, that a speedy decision of this case is not only desirable to the litigants but to the public as well and therefore if the defendants answer, which they may do within 20 days, it may be understood that this case shall have precedence over all others and shall precedence over all others and shall be subject to setting within five days after the time it shall come of issue,

WEBER COUNTY BUSINESS.

Additions to Law Library-Amendments to Horticultural Law. Ogden, Jan. 29.—The board of county commissioners received W. L. Maginnis and T. D. Johnson as a committee from the Bar association of Ogden, who asked the board to make an appropria-tion of $500 for the purchase of 349 volumns of suprece court reports; also an appropriation of $200 for the pur-chase of other law books for the law li-brary at the courthouse. The board decided to grant the first appropriation of $500, but declined the second one, be-lieving that the bar association should raise the $200 for the other books de-

C. A. Hickenlooper, a member of a committee of five appointed to prepare a new horticultural law appeared be-fore the board and gave a long explanation of the proposed amendments, one of which is that in every county in the state a fruit tree inspector be appointed, and that the state pay their proposed legislation.

Now that Judge Murphy has decided that the sanitarium near the mouth of Ogden canyon is within the city limits, the board named its members, together with the county attorney, a committee to meet with the city council and city attorney to decide on an exact bound-ary line between the city and county, so that the same can be passed by the present legislature. The overseer of poor, Joseph Stanford, reported that in all 106 tons of coal have been received of which 83 tons have been distributed among the poor.

It was decided to rent from Ogden city a portion of its ground near the pest house for the erection of a county pesthouse.

Game Warden Hogge reported having, with the sheriff, fed hundreds of qual during the past week, thus saving them from starvation.

Mrs. Boyack is employed in the Antler's roominghouse in Salt Lake and had several witnesses, among them Mrs. Young, the proprietor of the Antlers here, in her behalf. Sam Dowse was down as a witness for the defense. He testified that the reputation of the Antlers was not good. This testimony was very objectionable to Mrs. Young, and at the close of the hearing she did not hesitate to tell him so nor what she claimed he was—on this point her opinion is best represented by dashes—and that she would get even with him. She also promised to do as much for Atty. B, R Thurman, who represented the defendant.

FOR CHINESE FAMINE FUND.

Citizen Gives Reasons for Contributing To Cause of Suffering Humanity.

The following was sent the "News" with a $5 bill for the starving Chinese: Editor Deseret News:

Provo, Utah Co., Jan. 29.—Please find enclosed a small amount for the Chinese famine relief fund ($5).

Provo, Utah Co., Jan. 29.—Please find enclosed a small amount for the Chinese famine relief fund ($5).

I take pleasure in making this contribution for several reasons, and hope enough Americans will respond to the call of President Roosevelt to enable him to send the largest amount of any country to relieve the sufferers. But this is not the main reason, nor does the question of like or dislike of the Chinese enter into the consideration of the case. To employ the saying of Lincoln, applied by him to the poor: The Lord must love the Chinese, or He would not have made so many of them.

I feel that the Christians and the decent citizens of this country owe the Chinese something for the indignities that have been heaped upon them, and for the wrongs they have suffered at the hands of hoodlums of this Christian nation, and consider this an opportune time to show that the American people, generally, are of the opinion with David Starr Jordan, that "it is more important that a man should be decent the that he should be white." And to show to the Chinese, living here, that the disgraceful abuse of their countrymen in Golden Gate park by the Christian (?) soldiers of California, as reported in the "News" at the time of the San Francisco disaster, and while the heathen Chinese of Fresno and other California towns were sending aid to the stricken citizens of San Francisco, with instructions to divide their gifts among white and Chinese alike, does not represent the reart of the American people, nor the influence of Christianity.

And, finally, I hope Utah will respond liberally to the call of the president, and have her name written near the top of the column in the record of this work for humanity.

She leaves the following named children; Mrs. George Cafferty, Mrs. Frank Hail, Lyman Lake, Mrs. William Van Leuven, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. Ranson Van Leuven and Lawrence Lake; also 38 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

The funeral services were held at the meetinghouse at Fairview, Idaho, Thursday, Jan. 24, at noon, Bishop Edwin Bodily in charge. The speakers were M. W. Pratt of Preston, Ida, formerly bishop of Fairview for 16 years, James R. McNeal of Fairview and Jahn L. Herrick, of Ogden, Utah, a nephew of the deceased. The funeral was very largely attended indicating the high regard and esteem in which she was held by those who knew her in life. One of the speakers who had known her a life time, testified of her sterling qualities, her animosity to none and good will to all displayed throughout her long life.

Lucy Jane Herrick Lake, daughter of Lemuel and Sallie Herrick, was born, Dec. 14, 1827, at Nelson, Portage county, Ohio. In 1830 her parents accepted the gospel and became members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; one year later the family moved to Jackson county, Missouri, and in 1834 were driven with the saints by a mob and settled in Far West. In 1838 they were driven again and their home destroyed by fire along with many others and her parents moved to Commerce afterwards called Nauvoo at which place her mother died through hardships and sufferings endured on account of her religion, The family crossed the plains and arrived in Salt Lake City, Sept. 22, 153, and after a few days' rest came to Ogden where they continued to reside. PASSING OF MRS. LUCY J. LAKE. CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON NO LIMIT TO ITS POWERS FOR EVIL

Contagious Blood Poison has brought more suffering, misery and humilation into the world than all other diseases combined; there is hardly any limit to its powers for evil. It is the blackest and vilest of all disorders wrecking the lives of those unfortunate enough to contract it and often being transmitted to innocent offspring, a blighting legacy of suffering and shame. So highly contagious is the trouble that innocent persons may contract it by using the same table ware, toilet articles or clothing of one in whose blood the treacherous virus has taken root. Not only is it a powerful poison but a very deceptive one. Only those who have learned by bitter experience know by the little sore or ulcer, which usually makes its appearance first, of the suffering which is to follow. It comes in the form of ulcerated mouth and throat, unsightly copper colored spots, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, offensive sores and ulcers on the body, and in severe cases the finger nails drop off, the bones become diseased, the nervous system is shattered and the sufferer becomes an object of pity to his fellow man. Especially is the treacherous nature of Contagious Blood Poison, shown when the infected person endeavors to combat the poison with mercury and potash. These minerals will drive away all outward symptoms of the troubles for a while, and the victim is deceived into the belief that he is cured. When, however, the treatment is left off he finds that the poison has only been driven deeper into the blood and the disease reappears, and usually in worse form because these strong minerals have not only failed to remove the virus from the blood but have weakened the entire system because of their destructive action. S. S. S. is she only real and certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It is made of a combination of healing blood-purifying roots, herbs and barks, the best in Nature's great laboratory of forest and field. We offer a reward of $1.000 for proof that S. S.
